

The Caulfield Junior College (CJC) Hebrew Immersion Program was established in 2001 at the request of a group of parents.

This self funded Program is run by the CJC School Council. A council sub-committee which includes school representatives, parents and the HIP coordinator make policy recommendations to the council on issues including curriculum, staffing, and finance.

The program aims to promote competencies in Hebrew. The children will learn to communicate effectively in Hebrew by developing speaking, listening, reading and writing skills.
